Sir,

I would like to thank as a president of Melakottaiyur Panchayat for your immense support and contribution towards the development of this village. I also extend my gratitude to your staff and students for extending their support to sensitise students towards social issues, holistic development of our Village. Further I deeply indebted to your students in cleaning the temple area , temple tank and bushes (on 9th August 2014) and converting it as a playing area such as Volleyball, Cricket, Football and other sports courts on 16th and 23rd August 2014 for the village children and youths and also arranging dental check up and general check (on 30th August 2014) for our village elderly people. I am proud to say that your university attracted some of our youths in joining the programme offered by your university Departments such as Exercise Physiology & Biomechanics and Physical Education.

Thanking you

Yours faithfully
